THE ITALIAN BEE.

The Italian bee has been cultivated in the northern portion of Italy from time immemorial. It is of the same species as our common black bee, but differs in color, it being marked with orange color on the the three first segments of the abdomen. When young the colors are much brighter, but as it advances in age, it becomes darker, but can at all times be easily distinguished by its color. The queens have the orange color upon every segments, which are much brighter, but their purity is not judged by that alone, because some queens have but little of the yellow about them, yet their progeny are very bright. We introduced the Italian bee into North Carolina some three years ago, and they have proven every thing that has been claimed for them. They were introduced into Germany in the year 1853, where their nature and habits were thoroughly studied. They were introduced into America in 1859 and are fast superseding the common bee. Since they have proven their superiority, many persons throughout the United States, are turning their attention to the culture of the bee. One man in Wisconsin has increased his stock up to seven hundred and fifty seven hives within the last few years.

They have a striking superiority over the common bee in several points: in the first place, they are much more prolific, and will increase in numbers three fold faster than the common kind. They are more industrious, and some strong stocks will store from two hundred to two hundred and fifty pounds of surplus honey in one season.—They will store from fifty to one hundred pounds on an average every year. It has been proven to be a profitable business, if stocks yield ten pounds surplus honey to the hive. The time is fast approaching when they will supersede the black bee entirely, except in a few isolated cases where parties are unwilling to test their superiority. In a climate so variable as ours, where thousands of bees perish from the vicissitudes of the weather, it is economy in those who keep bees, to cultivate that species which has proven themselves to be more hardy than our common bee. Our experience has been that the Italian bee will go in quest of stores, when the black bee will not leave the hive. If more attention was paid to the culture of the bee in this latitude where we have all the natural honey resources, and where the climate is neither too hot or too cold, it could be made a profitable business, and a great source of revenue. We have fifty thousand square miles of territory in North Carolina, and suppose we had one hive to each square mile, we would have fifty thousand stocks of bees; each stock would yield a surplus of twenty pounds of honey, this at twenty cents per pound, would make two hundred thousand dollars. One hive to the square mile is a very limited number for North Carolina, when in some places in Europe there are as high as two thousand stocks to the square mile, and yet bee culture is a profitable business there.

Each square acre in North Carolina will yield one pound of honey, and there are thirty two millions acres of land, consequently there would be thirty two millions of pounds of honey, which, if sold at twenty cents per pound, would make the sum total of six millions and four hundred thousand dollars. Now it is within the reach of the people of North Carolina to provide means to save the larger portion of the honey that is allowed to waste in our fields and forest.

PAPER HANDKERCHIEFS.—The Japanese paper handkerchiefs are assuredly coming, if a cotemporary be right. The paper collar manufacture has now been extended to less prominent but more important garments of great strength and flexibility, which can be sewed with a machine, giving seams almost as strong as a woven fabric. The inventor has particularly applied it to the production of petticoats, which are either printed in imitation of the fashionable skirts of the day, or stamped out with open work of such beauty and delicacy as no amount of labor with scissors and needle could imitate. The marvel is that these really beautiful productions can be sold at retail at fifteen cents each! Imitation cretonnes and chintz for bed furniture are also made, a set costing at retail about $1.50. The felted material is so flexible that a curtain may be twisted into a rope and shaken out again, showing as little creasing as chintz similarly treated. There are also table cloths embossed with signs of great beauty. This felted paper may in the end have a serious influence on the production of the woven fabrics it is intended to displace. Imitation leather, impermeable to water, is likewise made of it, and produces a cheap and useful covering for furniture, and even serves for shoes. —Paper Trade Reporter.

A REVOLUTION IN RAIL ROADING.—A statement is made in some of the Pennsylvania papers that a citizen of that State has perfected an invention that is destined to effect a complete revolution in the present system of building and running railroads. His plan is to lay four rails instead of two to a single track road; to build the cars seventeen feet wide, with double sets of wheels. These he proposes to have propelled by double engines of sixty tons, which he says can draw trains containing a thousand passengers each. He claims that both the passenger and freight cars of this construction will weigh five tons less than any two similar cars of the present make that there will be no oscillating motion to the trains while running, even at a speed of sixty miles an hour, and that it will be almost impossible to overturn these cars. The inventor has applied for a patent. By this system, he claims that the trip from New York to San Francisco can be made in sixty hours, including all stoppages.

A GRAVE JOKE.—Rather a grave joke was that of McFarland's counsel the other day in challenging a juror on the ground that he was an undertaker, and would have a pecuniary interest in the conviction and death of the prisoner! It is a suggestive comment on the corruption of the times, when a juror can be successfully challenged on the the ground that for the trifling profit made on the coffin he would be willing to render a verdict of murder in the first degree, even if not justified by the evidence. —Cincinnati Times.

FALSE LOGIC.

The Standard affects not to believe a statement we made a few days ago, that a poor white orphan girl was violated by a negro near Graham, in Alamance county, because a somewhat similar statement appeared in the SENTINEL some months ago, as having occurred in the county of Wake, and the Standard has no proof of it!

The report of the affair in Alamance may not be true, but we have it from a respectable citizen of that county. It may be that some leagueman forged the name of the gentleman who wrote us concerning the affair. It may be that the two men from Alamance who told us of the little girl's being violated, and the negro's being arrested and put in jail, fabricated the story. It may be a fabrication—the report in the Hillsboro' Recorder and all—yet we believe it is true.

The Standard stated, upon the authority of Maj. Smith, that a negro was hung in Alamance soon after the hanging of Outlaw, but the Major had been misinformed; no such thing had occurred. Now, according to Joseph's logic, he should disbelieve the hanging of Outlaw, because the Standard had published an acknowledged false statement about the hanging of another person.

We gave the report about the outrages of the Governor's militia in Wake just as we received them from respectable persons.

Mr. Isham Collins, who lives in the neighborhood of Scott's, where the Governor's negro militia were quartered, informed us, one day this week, that one lady, whose house they entered, ran out at the back door and crawled under the house, where she lay in great terror until the militia left, which was some two hours or more. He says he made the shoes which were stolen from James Branch and afterward found on one of the Governor's milltiamen.

We should be rejoiced should it turn out that no little girl was violated in Alamance by a member of the Governor's league.—We shall also be rejoiced if it turns out that no woman was violated by the Governor's militia in Wake.

In regard to the latter case, we heard it and so stated it, we are not responsible for its truth or falsity.

Except in North Carolina, it is a rare thing that a negro or white man either, can violate a female and escape Lynch law.

Not long since a negro was hung by a mob in the loyal State of Illinois for a crime of this kind. A loyal leaguer was recently hung in Edgecombe, according to law, for the same thing.

We are rejoiced that no mob has attempted to break the jail and hang the loyal leaguer who violated the little girl in Alamance. That no such thing was attempted is a strong rebuke to the Governor and a flat contradiction of his slanderous proclamation charging lawlessness on the people of that county.

If the Standard wishes further information in regard to the infamous and barbarous conduct of the Governor's militia and loyal leaguers in Wake, we refer him to Archibald Branch, James Branch and Henry Yates, residing in that part of the county where his militia was sent, and also three ladies, whose names we forbear to put in print, but who are ready to state the facts at any time.

"NULLI NEGABIMUS, NULLI DIFFEREMUS JUSTITIAM."

Judge Lowry is said to have been fond of repeating this old maxim; so emphatic and so sterling; to be found in the "Great Charter of English Rights," the Magna Charta. Freely rendered, the phrase means, "we will not refuse or postpone that justice which is due to any man."

The old Court House, jail and whipping-post, in Hillsboro', were in close proximity to each other. Judge Murphy, before he came to the Bench, appeared, upon a certain occasion, for one Jack Baker, who was convicted of the crime charged and sentenced by Judge Lowry, to receive "nine and thirty."

Mr. Murphy, whose attention was diverted at the time, did not hear the sentence pronounced nor see the Sheriff when he took Jack out to receive it. Presently he moved for a new trial and argued his motion with great earnestness, declaring that it was impossible that, upon such evidence, a free citizen could be convicted and sentenced to nine and thirty lashes.

The old Judge repeated his favorite maxim, "Nulli negabimus, nulli differemus justitia," and asked Mr. Murphy to look out at the window and he would see that what he considered impossible had actually been accomplished! The counsel looked and saw the Sheriff executing the sentence of the Court, whereupon he closed his argument and withdrew his motion for a new trial.

A. T. & O. RAILROAD.—We learn from the American that the election in Iredell county to subscribe $60,000 to the A. T. & O. Railroad resulted as follows: For subscription, 622; Against subscription, 244; Majority for subscription 378.

"HELL! ORDER"

We are sorry to see that Col. O. H. Dockery, of the old twenty-first, is imitating Gov. Holden in the use of "cuss" words, in the Capitol of the nation.

It has now been published in every State and Territory throughout the Union, that the chairman of a Committee, a member of Congress, from North Carolina, instead of suppressing disorder by saying, "order, gentlemen, if you please" cried out in his stentorian voice, "Hell! order!"

When Badger and Mangum, Graham and Bragg, Biggs and Reid, Venable and Arrington, Kerr and Branch, Scales and Puryear, represented us in Congress, we had no such inelegant telegrams coming from the Capitol of the nation as "Hell! order!"

The "army in Flanders," swore and so did uncle Toby, but Col. Dockery did not swear when he was a soldier in the Confederate army. We know he was not taught this modern gubernatorial accomplishment by that good man, Professor Wingate, of Wake Forrest, where he graduated.

Old Downing is in Washington to see Gen. Littlefield about money; yes, money. We have it from pretty good authority that the Ring paid $241,000 to buy and corrupt members and others connected with the Legislature, to procure the passage of Railroad bills, of which Dr. Sloan received $20,000.

If Col. Dockery will talk with old Downing, he will learn there is no such place as he invoked for "order." If he will talk with that Holdenite preacher, Rev. Doggett, he will be informed, if there is such a place, the "fire has been quenched."

An old preacher in Orange thanks God that, in his justice and mercy, he has made the place which Col. Dockery invokes for "order," and gives it as his opinion that most Radicals, and all the "Ring," will go there, and that the "laughing devils will clap their hands to hear the rascals roar." We hope the "laughing devils" will be disappointed, and that all will yet repent and be saved.

A CARD.—The question has been frequently asked why my name did not appear to the Address by the Conservative members of the Legislature, to the people of the State, as published in the Raleigh SENTINEL.

I entirely endorse the address, and every part of it. I was consulted in its preparation, and gave my endorsement to it, but by omission either of the posting Committee or the mechanics in office, my name was left off.

I see from the Raleigh SENTINEL, that Mr. TURNER'S attention has been called to this fact, and that my name appears to the Address as now published.

G. M. WHITESIDE.

We clip the above from the Rutherford Vindicator, of April 11th, for the purpose of adding that the omission of the name of Mr. Whiteside was purely accidental, as was that of the names of some few other Conservative members of the Legislature, who approved the address and requested their names to be affixed to it. The omission was corrected as soon as discovered.

In reviewing the situation of affairs in the various States of the South, the Banner of the South, in its last issue, has the following in reference to North Carolina:

"In North Carolina the Radical leaders are still engaged in charging counties with being in a "state of insurrection" and calling upon United States bayonets for assistance. The fearful corruption of their party has reduced it to such a condition that it seems almost ready to fall to pieces and nothing but the interference of the Federal Government can preserve it from annihilation at the next election. The address which was issued to the people by the Conservative members of the Legislature upon the adjournment of that body, has met with approval throughout the entire State, and will probably be adopted as the platform of the Conservative party. The address obliterates all the party lines drawn prior to the surrender and calls upon all the opponents of Radicalism to unite under one banner. It accepts the status of the colored man fixed by the laws as a finality, and pledges every effort to elevate him morally and intellectually. It recites the iniquities practised by Holden's administration, and concludes by suggesting a plan of organization similar to that adopted by the Conservatives of Virginia in the canvass in that State last Summer. Everything seems to indicate that if the next election is conducted with any degree of fairness, the Conservatives will carry the State by a large majority.

WHAT THEY DON'T WANT.—The Radical party, as is well known, is the party, par excellence, of law and order, and religion, and progress, and great moral ideas, etc., four or five times. As an illustration of the fact, the Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal relates the following:

"We don't want law," said a prominent Radical to a Conservative, who remarked on the Ames case, "The committee have the law, but Ames' friends have the power." What in the h—ll do we want with law!" continued the representative of "progress and moral ideas." "We want the votes; we want the measures to perpetuate our political power. D—n law; d—n the Judiciary Committee. It is old fogy, and ought to be abolished."

HOLDING OVER.—The Standard says: "We are informed that the Sheriffs of most of the State have determined, under legal advice, to hold their offices until the election in August, 1872. This action, they say, is based upon the construction given to the 32d Section Article IV, of the State Constitution by Chief Justice Pearson and Judge Dick, in which construction the Sheriffs allege, their counsel concur."

That is to say that the "Sheriffs of most of the counties of the State" are of the opinion that they cannot be re-elected. A good evidence that Radicalism has gone up the spout in North Carolina.—Winston Sentinel.

CROP PROSPECTS.—We do not remember that we ever, at this season, knew the wheat crop to promise better than it does now. It has not been damaged by winter or rain, and there is an unusual breadth sown. The farmers are busy with preparations for a large crop of corn, and some have already planted.—Greensboro' Republican.

The wheat crop presents a most favorable appearance, notwithstanding the few frosts we have had. Farmers are now busy planting corn, cotton, &c., and we hope this year will bring prosperity to all classes.—Rutherford Vindicator.

AGRICULTURAL ADDRESS.

From the following correspondence which we copy from the Henderson Index, it will be seen that our fellow citizen, K. P. Battle, has consented to deliver the annual address before the Central Agricultural Society, at Henderson, at the next annual Fair.

HON. K. P. BATTLE, Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—At a regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the Central Agricultural Society held at their halls on the 2nd inst., we as a committee were requested to invite you to deliver an address before the Society at their annual exhibition to be held in October next. If you should think proper to respect the wishes of our good people by accepting such an invitation, rest assured of their highest sense of appreciation.

We are very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
G. W. Blacknall, G. B. Harris, W. W. Jones, John E. Clarke.

Raleigh, April 8, 1870.

Messrs. John E. Clarke, George W. Blacknall, W. W. Jones, George B. Harris, Committee.

Dear Sirs:—Yours of the 5th, in behalf of the Central Agricultural Society, requesting me to deliver an address before the Society in October next, is received.

Being deeply impressed with the importance of promoting Agricultural and Industrial Fairs, I do not feel at liberty to decline any task, within my power to perform, which those interested in such institutions may desire me to undertake.—While therefore fully conscious that your choice might have been better made, I will cheerfully endeavor to meet your wishes.

Very Respectfully Yours,
KEMP P. BATTLE.

HOW GEN. GRANT IS USED BY RICH MEN.

[From the Chicago Tribune, Republican.]

President Grant has one defect of character rarely met with in high places—an inexplicable respect for rich men. Now, a rich man without recognition of some kind is one of the poorest of human creatures.—Either commerce, literature, society or politics is necessary to make him happy, and this is why so many dunces sit in the Senate and House, paying out their money to be noticed. This sort of man is apt, if he have a republican conscience, to be a good sort of man for a President to take by the hand now and then, to encourage him with the fact that even enterprise is not the worst thing in the State, and to assure him that respectable wealth need not debar any person from visiting Magistracy occasionally.

Now, why should the President take pleasure in such merely rich men as Borie and Corbin; or, worse yet, in such designing rich men as Oakes, Ames, Daniel Morrell, and others, who are, of course, pleased with his attentions and interested in his person, but who have more important designs than either social recognition or historical reminiscence? If they find that they can impress the President with their views, merely by the contact of their riches, they will use him to their fill, and blast his administration with their fulsome praise and insidious advice.

The President's best advisers are not to be found in the private closet. The days of the privy council went out with Clarendon and the Third Stuart. The President's advisers should be the better press of the country, and the cry of the many headed poor—the over-taxed farmer, the idle tailor, the immigrant. It is mortifying to our conceptions of the American Chief Magistrate that he should feel the contact of any man, such less a merely rich one. This is the weakness of Gen. Grant—the real weakness! He is used. He is impressible! He is an abused man! His relatives have not felt, in the nice sense of delicacy, the duty they owed him to abstain from soliciting federal favors. Many of them are in office. Others have tried to grow rich by obtaining his ear. It is more than probable that Corbin swindled Fisk and Gould out of $100,000 by using the name of President Grant. But if Corbin had grown rich as Cræsus by his high relationship, it would have been a less dangerous symptom than the known fact that people who have climbed to opulence by the barbarisms and slips of legislation are looked upon by the President as the best exponents of American citizenship.

DID STANTON COMMIT SUICIDE?—The La Crosse Democrat still persists in its assertion that Edwin M. Stanton committed suicide. It says:

"He died in the third story of a house. No one was allowed to see the corpse. He was not laid in state, as the head of the War Department should have been—as other men of prominence are. He died, and was kept from sight. And none of those who called to see the remains of the "great statesman" could obtain a view of the corpse. In vain did his friends urge that the body be laid in state in the War Department. His grave clothes were made to cover up his face. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and that church denies to suicides graves under its prayers and protection. And to have made known the manner of his death would have been the casting him out from church rites and Christian burial. And this would have had great political effect, and so a consultation, called at 11 o'clock at night, was held, and it was decided that the truth must not be known.'

"And again, why was his body taken up quietly the week after interment, and another put in its place? Simply that the manner of his death might never be proven.'

LET US HAVE PEACE.—We learn from a gentleman who was a passenger on the accommodation train on the W. C. & R. R. last Saturday, that while passing the house of Mr Register, Section Master on the road between Red Banks and Moss Neck, the wife of Mr. Register, who was standing in her door, was insulted by a colored employee on the train who threw a Lim at her from the platform of one of the cars. When the train stopped at Moss Neck, Mr. Register, who had been informed of the occurrence, attacked the negro with a club, and struck him two blows across the head; but the negro jumped off the train and took to the woods, pursued by Register. After the train had started the negro approached and tried to board the train, but the avenger was too close upon his heels, and he was compelled again to plunge into the woods, and seek safety by the use of his legs.

We have not heard the result; but think it fair to presume that he found throwing kisses at white ladies a dangerous pastime. —Reconstruction.

FOR EUROPE.—Spencer S. Baldwin, eldest son of Mr. Baldwin, the clothier; Miss Mary and Master Thomas Budington, children of Rev. Dr. Budington; and G. Hutchinson, son of Dr. J. C. Hutchinson, all of this city, sailed for Europe last Saturday in the "Deutschland." Master Baldwin goes to Germany to be educated.—Brooklyn News.

REVELS.—REVELS has thee brothers who are preachers. He used to be a preacher himself, but when his congregation at Leaven worth were so mean as to make a fuss about that contemptible sum of fifteen hundred dollars of theirs which he pocketed he became disgusted with the ministry and turned politician.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—How the MSS. I now send you fall into my hands, is nobody's business to know, though I will tell you how, as soon as I can make a visit to Raleigh.—We poor clod-hoppers, who are weighed down with taxes, must stay at home at this season of the year, to prepare our grounds for the coming crops, and if possible, make enough to keep soul and body together a little longer—if the taxes do not take away from the mouths of our wives and children what we try to make. You will agree with me that these are precious documents, as they, in part, unfold the methods pursued to increase and continue the Radical party. It cannot but strike you and every one who reads these "notes of lectures" purporting to set forth the principles of Radicalism, how very much like a certain Roman who attempted to subvert the liberties of his country, the author of these lectures is.—We read that that Roman "chiefly sought the intimate friendship of young men, whose minds, soft and ductile by their youth, were without difficulty ensnared by his wiles." But our lecturer goes ahead of this old fogy, for though he did to a great extent corrupt the youth, and did make the most vigorous efforts to enlist in his party the freedmen of Rome, as well as every other low character to be found, he failed after all in his wicked attempts. Our lecturer, on the contrary, has already used the freedmen of our day to his hearts content, and by their aid, has placed himself in the seat of power. And now, as he finds his power waning, and fearing, perhaps, that the freedmen by whom he was at first elevated to office, are wavering in their attachment and zeal, and may desert him;—like his illustrious prototype, he turns his special attention to the youth of the country, and to any who are disaffected, or who may be called "poor men," as a certain editor you wot of may be termed.

If you think proper to publish these "notes of lectures," well and good, if not, do not burn them, but keep them to be returned to me when I shall have the good fortune to see you. In the meantime,

I am very respectfully,
Your friend, &c.,
M. G. Y.

NOTES OF A COURSE OF LECTURES ON RADICALISM, TO THE YOUNG MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, BY H. H. H.

PRELIMINARY LECTURE.

You will, no doubt, agree with me, young gentlemen, that Radicalism is an excellent thing, and particularly the noblest character of a politician. It is also well known that as there are Radicals in all the States of this Union, so too, our own State has a certain party of that name, who glory in, and are ready to fight for, radicalism; and who, it is to be justly hoped, appropriate to themselves exclusively the character of Radicals. Neither is it a small presage of a glorious and blessed condition of the State, in coming times, that so many of our young men are smitten with the love of radicalism; many of whom burn with desire to appear in that noble character.

This has inspired me with the ambition and expectation of helping to train up as many as are desirous of it, in this most useful of all sciences. For however perfectly it is known, and however admirably practised by many who are adepts; and notwithstanding the fact that there are some young men of fine parts and aspiring aim, who make a sudden and surprising proficiency, without much assistance; yet I have often observed, that there are several persons who err, in many instances, from the right path, stumble at various particular steps of their leaders, and take a long time before they are thoroughly confirmed in their principles and practice. The same persons too, by an unsteady conduct, or by an imprudent and unseasonable discovery of their designs, have brought reproach upon their party, and been an obstruction to whatever work they had then in hand.

These bad effects, I humbly conceive, flow chiefly, if not entirely, from the want of a complete system of radicalism, containing all its prominent features, and giving a distinct view of their mutual influence one upon another, as well as proving their reasonableness, and showing by example how they ought to be put into practice.

There is no treatise of this kind, to my knowledge, yet extant, and this renders my present undertaking the more laudable, and will, I hope, render it the more acceptable.

I take this opportunity, in this preliminary lecture, to inform you, young gentlemen, that after I was fully convinced of the necessity of some such treatise as that which follows, but before I entered upon it myself, I earnestly besought several of the most eminent men of the radical stamp among us, those burning and shining lights of our party, who are, and we esteemed to be, our leaders, that some one of them would set about it. However, they all devolved it upon me; and made this satisfying excuse for themselves, that they were so busy in acting out radicalism, that they could not command time to write upon it. You well know that for many years previously to my being called to fill my present exalted station, my life was that of an Editor, and by long practice, I now "hold the pen of a ready writer." This too was urged as one great reason why I should enter upon the important duty of instructing you in the great principles of radicalism, not to mention the fact that I am, what all know, the "Magnus Apollo," or rather "the Apostle and High Priest of our profession."

I shall now proceed to the principal part of my work, after I have informed you of its plan; which is briefly this: to enumerate distinctly and in their proper order and connection, all the several maxims on which radicals conduct themselves. And forsamuch as the justice of some of these maxims, being refined pieces of policy, is not very evident at first sight, I shall subjoin to each an illustration and confirmation of it, from reason or experience, or both. And I flatter myself, that understanding the subject thoroughly, I shall make everything so plain, and so acceptable, that I shall soon draw over all the youth of the State worth having, to espouse our glorious cause with heart and soul, and thus effectually blot out the very name of the accursed Conservatives from the land.

DEATH FOLLOWING THE APPLICATION OF CREASOTE TO A CARIOUS TOOTH.—L'Imparsiale relates that a man aged 36, has lately died in the San Maria Nuova Hospital at Florence, from the results of the application of creasote to a carious tooth. Ginitis and gangrene of the mouth appeared, and death from septicæmia took place in sixteen days. The relator of the fact mentions that when young, the free application of creasote to a carious tooth which he had, was followed by inflammation of the fauces and fever, by which he was confined to his bed for three days. These local effects ascribed to creasote are remarkable. We are not aware that any similar cases have been described as occurring in this country.—Brit Med. Jour.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.
THE AMERICAN COMBINATION
Button Hole & Sewing Machine
Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.
THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering en the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.
Plans of unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.
It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.
The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

CARD.
SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
AT the request of General Jno. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.
We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South, to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefitted by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.
We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) is INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED
This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and both Carolinas, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of strangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

WITHDRAWN.—At the request of Dr. M. Closs of Orange, his name is withdrawn as candidate for the Legislature from that county.

"THE N. C. HOME."—A new announcement by our Home Fire Insurance Co., appears in our advertising columns to-day.—It is gratifying to hear of the growing favor which this Company experiences at the hands of the people. It pays its claims promptly, and its affairs are judiciously and energetically managed.

DEAD.—J. R. McLean, Esq., of Greensboro', died in that place on the 12th inst., leaving a wife and children and large circle of friends to mourn their loss. His death was not unexpected, as he had been lingering for a long time under the hand of that fell disease—consumption. The Masonic Lodge of Greensboro' paid appropriate tributes to his memory.

Mr. and Mrs. McEvoy who are at present in our city with their celebrated "Hibernicon" or Panorama of Ireland, will assist in the choir of St. John's Church at the Mass at 11 o'clock to-morrow (Easter Sunday.) They have the reputation of being accomplished musicians. Yesterday Mr. McEvoy visited the Church, and when he laid hands on the new Parisian Organ he could not restrain his feelings. Every now and then he would cry out—beautiful! grand! magnificent! or use some other exclamation of delight on touching the admirable instrument. He declared it was the most wonderful combination of musical sounds he had ever heard. This instrument was ordered in preference to other Organs at the recommendation of Mr. A. J. Rutjes, and the remarks of Mr. McEvoy show that Father McNamara was not mistaken in the reliance he placed on the musical skill of Mr. Rutjes. It gives us pleasure to notice the musical talent we have among our citizens.

DEPLORABLE.—The Greensboro' Patriot says, we learn our aspiring Senator Shoffner, and family, left this country a few days since for the "far West," never to return.—Oh, what a loss is this, my countrymen!"

Good-bye Shoffner. Yours was a short but brilliant career,—from the anvil to the Senate—from boiling negroes to getting into hot water yourself.

CORRECTIONS.—We stated yesterday that we had received ten dollars from Miss Julia C. Bryce for the Ladies Memorial Association. It should have been Mrs. Julia C. Bryce, of Charlotte.

In our local notice of the auction sale of lots of the Rayner place, by Mr. R. S. Pullen, we said it would be on the 12th of May, whereas the advertiser says it is to be on the 3rd. We believe that we were wrong and the advertisement right; that is, that the sale will take place on the 3rd, as advertised.

THE HIBERNICON opened at Tucker Hall last night, to not a large, but very appreciative and well pleased audience.

We have not time to notice the entertainment as it deserves, before going to press, but we will say that no one who may patronize it but will be pleased, amused, and, if observant, instructed.

The paintings are good—the scenes of mountain, lake and city, castle and cottage, including classic, historic and legendary localities—are grand and beautiful.

The singing and characteristic representations are good and laughable.

Go and enjoy it to-night.

BANK OF RALEIGH.—Have our people in Raleigh and other points where books for subscription have been opened given the attention to the subject of this recently inaugurated enterprise that its importance demands? We learn that capitalists from abroad are ready to invest in this new Bank, as soon as they see our own people earnestly at work for its organization and success. The Books will soon be closed—see advertisement.

AN EVERY DAY CONVENIENCE.—There are many things that are daily conveniences; some of them we can't well do without, and others without which we would get along very badly. We get along very well without some things until we get used to them, and then we can't see how we could do without them. Among this class of conveniences, so far as we are concerned, is the pocket slate, for one of which we are indebted to Mr. Jesse A Jones, Bookseller, who keeps various sorts and sizes of them for sale. It is a very cheap sort of tablet, and may be had to use with either slate or lead pencil. We had just bought one, and now we have two, but lest any one should want to divide with us, we will state that we have already disposed of one of them.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.—We have received a catalogue of the officers and students of Davidson College for the collegiate year ending June 30th, 1870.

From this catalogue it appears there are, Seniors 13; Juniors 39; Sophomores 33; Freshmen 28, making, in the regular course, 113, to which add 12 scientific students gives a total of 125 as attendance during the year.

This statement exhibits a gratifying state of prosperity of this institution, but not more than its merits and the high advantages it offers the youth of the South for acquiring a thorough Collegiate education justifies.

The Faculty of Davidson College occupy high positions among the scholars and educators of the country, and the prescribed Collegiate course is comprehensive and thorough.

This catalogue is neatly gotten up at the job office of those enterprising printers, Messrs. Nichols & Gorman of this city.

DEATH TO THE DEAREST CLOSEST CLINGS.

SUGGESTED BY THE DEATH OF MRS. S. P. PATTERSON.

Death found her waiting—robes of peace and gladness on—
She had been ready since life's tranquil noon;
In thoughts benign and gentle deeds begun—
Meekly waiting till evening shades waxed long,
Rose on the twilight air, 'Alas! the loved one's gone."

Cold silence wraps the dreigay valley since she went;
Even the glad song of birds, by Heaven in mercy sent
To charm the dull ear, seems darkly blent
With notes of woe—o'er the far welkin sadly rings,
"Love not too well"—death to the dearest closest clings.

The tender babe may droop upon the mothers' breast;
She weeps, but in the hour of sore distress
Turns to other smiling cherubs and seeks rest—
She would not bury in her joy in one small grave
When lisping prattlers live from sorrow's depths to save—

The child is gone—wild sight, and sad as wild,
A weeping mother o'er a death-struck child—
A few true mourners share her dole the while,
But ere frail flowers fade upon that tufted plot
The lost by all save one fond heart's forgot.

Not so, alas! the noble friend so rudely torn
From admiring circles wide—all mourn
That so much goodness, purity and truth has flown;
None her sphere may fill—all the valleys of the land
Hold none who soothed a sorrow with so gentle hand.

All yielded homage to her winsome ways—
I, who well remember joys of childhood days
Naught could breathe but words of honest praise—
High privilege mine to list her counsel wise,
"Be hopeful ever—look upward to the skies."

The timid nursling gained fresh courage in her arms,
By magic art its roving fancy duly charmed—
Coy maidens, by loving confidence disarmed,
Familiar grew—a friend congenial found—
E'en age, its leaden cares to kindly ears unbound.

Breathe softly, winds, above her silent bower of rest;
Dew-tipped flowers of Spring she loved the best,
Form starry garlands o'er her pulseless breast,
And when deep devotion the pleading spirit stirs,
Pray grace to feel in death faith calm and deep as hers.

JULIA C BRYCE.

CHARLOTTE, Nov. 23rd, 1869.

CORNS AND BUNIONS.—These troublesome companions are a nuisance to every one afflicted with them. Those who suffer with them, need not be longer distressed. Dr. Lindoman, an experienced and thorough Chiropodist, removes them promptly at his rooms at the Yarborough House. We speak from actual experience, having secured his services to remove several painful corns and a more painful bunion, and our relief has been great. Dr. L. does not use acids or any artificial means to prevent pain, but uses his instrument so skillfully that corns are removed without pain, and even very painful bunions and soft corns are removed with little suffering. Having experienced much relief from the operations of two Chiropodists, some twenty five years apart, we cheerfully commend Dr. Lindoman to the suffering public. Corns and bunions removed by a skillful Chiropodist are not likely to return in the same places, though the same causes will produce the same effect.

A NEW BOOK.—We have received from Messrs. Claxton, Remsen and Haffelfinger, Publishers, Philadelphia, through J. A. Jones, Bookseller of this city, a copy of "The Capture and Escape," or Life among the Sioux," by Mrs. Sarah L. Larimer, who was the subject of the narrative, having been captured by the Sioux Indians, with a company of emigrants to Idaho Territory, and remained in captivity with them some four or five years. It is a very readable and instructive book, containing much interesting information concerning the tribe of Indians among whom she remained so long, as well as many stirring incidents of a personal character, connected with her unhappy experience as a captive. For sale by Mr. Jones.

Howard's house stands were made to Gen O. O. Howard.

SENATE.—Sherman presented a memorial from certain citizens of Maryland asking for a repeal of the law, forbidding compensation for slaves unjustly taken from them. The memorial was properly referred.

The Georgia bill was resumed. Pomeroy advocated his amendment making Georgia a military district, &c. Hamilton of Texas made an argument advocating the views of Morton and in favor of the amendment suggested by Drake.

Gov Bullock and Gen. Clarke of Texas shook hands with Hamilton at the conclusion of his speech (a most slanderous one.—ED.)

It was finally agreed to take the final vote on Tuesday at 6 o'clock. Adjourned.

The House adopted the Conference Committee's report on the deficiency bill. District of Columbia matters were afterwards considered and several bills of local interest were passed. The House adjourned until Monday.

OHIO.

CLEAVELAND, April 15.—Mendina, a town of 3,000 inhabitants, built of wood, has been entirely burned. As the town is not on any Railroad and telegraph line, details come in slowly.

LONDON, April 15.—Five hundred emigrants sailed from this city for Louisville in the steamer Midway.

MADRID, April 15.—Olazaga has been appointed President of the Council of State.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Thousands of Precious Lives are to-day as rapidly sinking, and as surely tottering on to an untimely end, in Suffering Agony, by infection, and ignorance of the cause which

Science can arrest and assuage,
Nourish into new Life and Vigor,
And cause the Bloom of Health
To dance once more upon their withered Cheeks.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,

Steals upon its victims unaware, and before they are aware of its attack, points itself firmly in the system, and through neglect or inattention becomes a fixed, and defies all ordinary or temporary treatment to relinquish its merciless grasp.

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

$1,000,000,

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased, fifty per cent. All the losses reported to 1st Jan'y last amounted to but $40 000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 924 applications amounting to nearly $3 000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and inducements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assets, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 20 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and non-injurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

H. C. FREEMAN,	Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

H. H. GOODLOE,	General Agent for N. C.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150.000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.
